

Australia's leading flour and bakery manufacturer Allied Pinnacle invests in Victoria economy with multi-year lease agreement for an 11,800 sqm purpose-built facility

Allied Pinnacle cements Victorian distribution centre with Sod Turning ceremony in partnership with Dexus, attended by Melton City Council Mayor Cr Kathy Majdlik.

(13 December 2023) Construction of leading flour and bakery manufacturer Allied Pinnacle's new 11,800 sqm purpose-built facility at Horizon 3023 industrial estate in Victoria's Ravenhall is officially underway, with the ceremonial turning of the first sod at the new site today.

Set to be its largest distribution centre (DC), the Horizon 3023 site represents the next phase of Allied Pinnacle's supply chain strategy. The lease agreement means the new DC will service a number of Australian states and territories including Victoria, South Australia, and Tasmania, enabling Allied Pinnacle to continue to be the pantry to millions of households across Australia.

With construction commencing today, the state-of-the-art facility is set to open in 2025, providing a boost to the Victorian economy. The ceremonial sod turning was attended by Allied Pinnacle General Manager of Supply Chain Manjiv Fernando, Dexus's Head of Development, Andrew McDonald, and Mayor Melton City Council Mayor Cr Kathy Majdlik and members of the extended Allied Pinnacle team.

Speaking at the ceremony, Allied Pinnacle's General Manager of Supply Chain, Manjiv Fernando says, "Today marks an extraordinary milestone, as work commences on the building of our biggest facility to date. It's a project that will allow us to continue to deliver world-leading innovation and meet the needs of our customers and Australian consumers. Allied Pinnacle bakes the future from flour and has done so for over 100 years. We are looking forward to the next 100 years and the boundless opportunities that will arise from this site."

Dexus's Head of Development (South), Andrew McDonald said "We are honoured to have been chosen by Allied Pinnacle as the location where their new facility will be built. The estate's premium location in Melbourne's Western Growth Corridor with convenient access to freight and logistics networks continues to attract leading global and Australian brands."

ALLIED PINNACLE

The distribution centre will feature a Test Kitchen for customers, integrated fit out, corporate office, 39m hardstand, super awning for all weather loading, 16.8m ridge height for vertical expansion and integrated sustainability measures.
